

THE IRISH REVIEW OF CED LAW & POLICY

THEMES ISSUES 2-3-4

With the view of promoting CED Law & Policy at different levels and among its many possible areas of interaction, we will be focusing on a number of themes for the year 2012.

- Volume 1 Issue 2: Children (to be published on March 31st)
  - Child-care and workforce development
  - Welfare support and economic development
  - Impact of economic incentives on children
  - Any other theme relevant to CED law and policy

- Volume 1 Issue 3: Community Investment and Participation (to be published on June 30th)
  - Community finance including microfinance
  - Role of partnerships
  - Tax incentives
  - Cooperatives
  - Any other theme relevant to CED law and policy

- Volume 1 Issue 4: Legal Services and community legal education (to be published on September 30th)
  - Impact of Legal Services Bill (or Act)
  - Pro-Bono experiences
  - Clinical legal education from a practitioner/student/ community perspective
  - Role of Community Law Centres
  - Any other theme relevant to CED law and policy

Should you have an idea for an article, book review or case study that does not fit into these themes, please feel free to email us at editor@nclc.ie, as it can help us plan Volume 2 (December 2012-September 2013). And remember, should you wish to have a better understanding of what CED law and policy implies, we recommend you read our first issue.